Foreword

The 1970 WARRIOR staff presents a new style of yearbook to complement a new and exciting decade....the seventies. We hope that your approval will meet with such new features as the silk-screen process cover of our own design, and the special-effect photography portrayed on this page and the following division pages. We also sincerely hope that you will share our pride in this publication, and will cherish the memories it contains throughout many decades to come.

Academics

Students Offered Broad Curriculum

A sound curriculum is the basis of a good school system. F.H.S. students partook of a sound yet broad curriculum during the 1969-70 school year. Students were able to choose from several elective fields such as vocational agriculture, home economics and industrial arts, as well as the standard required classes in English, science, and social science. The students also were able to choose from many fine arts areas such as art, speech, dramatics, and music.

Jeanne Cunningham, Sheri Fuehrer, and Mary Channer visit in the hallway after school. The hallways were the scenes of many after school "discussions."

Senior Scott Sprague puts the finishing touches on his Art I project.

F.H.S. students gather outside the front entrance to spend the remainder of the noon period before afternoon classes begin.

Administrative Task Not Easy

The task of school operation is a difficult one. This task is shared by the Board of Education and the administrators, namely the superintendent and principal. These people must see that the school system operates efficiently throughout the year, safeguarding the education of the youth of the community.

Mr. Max Irvin completed his third year as principal of Fullerton High. He received his B. S. and M. A. degrees from Wayne State College, and is currently continuing graduate work at the University of Nebraska.

Mr. Willard Hunzeker, superintendent, received his B. A. degree from Peru State College and his M. S. degree from the University of Nebraska at Omaha. He has served as F.H.S. superintendent for 12 years.

Mr. Richard Brengelman completed his first year at F.H.S., teaching geometry, pre-algebra, and physics. He attended Kearney State College.

Mrs. Jane Swartz, a Nebraska Wesleyan graduate, taught general science, chemistry, and physical education during her second year at F.H.S. She also was a co-sponsor of the sophomore class.

Mrs. Uhler Serves First Year

Mr. Don Rabbe, a Hastings College graduate, completed his first year of teaching at F.H.S., as a junior and senior English instructor. He also was a sponsor of the Drama Club and coached dramatics.

Mrs. Jacky Uhler, a graduate of Kearney State College, taught business education during her first year at F.H.S. She was also a co-sponsor of the junior class.

Mrs. Jeanette Knowles, librarian, completed her tenth year at F.H.S. A Doane College graduate, she also helped sponsor the junior class.

Mr. Harold Dissmeyer, a University of Nebraska graduate, taught all vocational agriculture classes and sponsored the F.F.A. during his fifth year at F.H.S.

Miss Connie Babcock, who instructed all art classes during her first year at F.H.S., is a graduate of Greenville College. She also assisted with drama activities.

Two Share Coaching Duties

Mr. Leigh Metcalf, a Nebraska Wesleyan graduate, completed his fifth year at F.H.S. He taught world history and geography, Spanish, and sponsored the senior class.

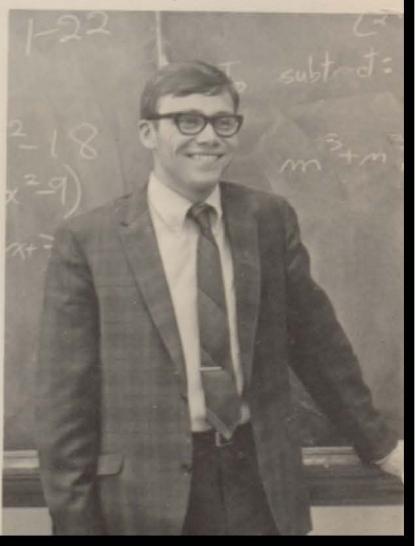

Mr. Dean Petricek, a University of Nebraska graduate, taught physical education and driver education during his third year at F.H.S. He also served as head basketball coach, assisting in football and track.

Mr. Gary Yost completed his eleventh year as music instructor at F.H.S. Mr. Yost is a Nebraska Wesleyan graduate.

Mr. Bill Uhler served his first year as math instructor at F.H.S. Mr. Uhler, a Kearney State College graduate, also assisted in sponsoring the junior class.

Teacher Role: Dedication

The teacher's role is most often unappreciated. The long hours of preparation, caring for students needs, and the problem of being a disciplinarian as well as a friend often go unnoticed. This role, which is not always best described as a "job" or "duty", is better described as a "dedication."

Mr. Gary Camp, a Kearney State College graduate, taught freshman and sophomore English during his second year at F.H.S. He also sponsored the yearbook and Student Council.

Mr. Barry Miller, a University of Nebraska at Omaha graduate, completed his fourth year as an industrial arts and physical education instructor. He was also head football coach, assisting in basketball and track.

Miss Minnie Hendrickson, a University of Nebraska graduate, served her second year as a social science instructor at F.H.S. She also assisted in sponsoring the Pep Club.

Mr. Walt Wolvin completed his third year as F.H.S. guidance counselor. He is a University of Nebraska graduate.

Mrs. Irene Kula served her second year as F.H.A. sponsor and home economics instructor. She is a University of Nebraska graduate.

Seven On Personnel Staff

Serving as office secretaries during the 1969-70 school year were Mrs. Ruby Newquist (left), and Mrs. Margaret Leininger.

Mr. Virg Kula (left), and Mr. Ray Dubas served as high school building custodians during the 1969-70 school term.

Serving as 1969-70 school cooks were l. to r. Mrs. Anna-belle Hansen, Mrs. Liz Stopak, and Mrs. Alice Sidders.

Juniors Present '65 Broadway Hit

The Junior Class sponsored the Kaztor production of the 1965 Broadway hit "Barefoot In The Park" October 29. The play depicted the comic problems of a newly-married lawyer and his young bride. Steve Nelson and Debbi Nesbitt played the roles of the young couple, Paul and Corie Bratter. The setting was constructed realistically, portraying a New York town-house flat. Supporting roles were played by Wendel Potter (Victor Valasco), Carol Brower (Mrs. Banks), Dennis Gabriel (telephone repairman), and Paul Haynes (deliveryman). The play, which was made into a motion picture after its Broadway run, was the first of its type at F.H.S. and met with an enthusiastic and favorable response from the audience. Mr. Don Rabbe and Miss Connie Babcock were the faculty directors of the production.

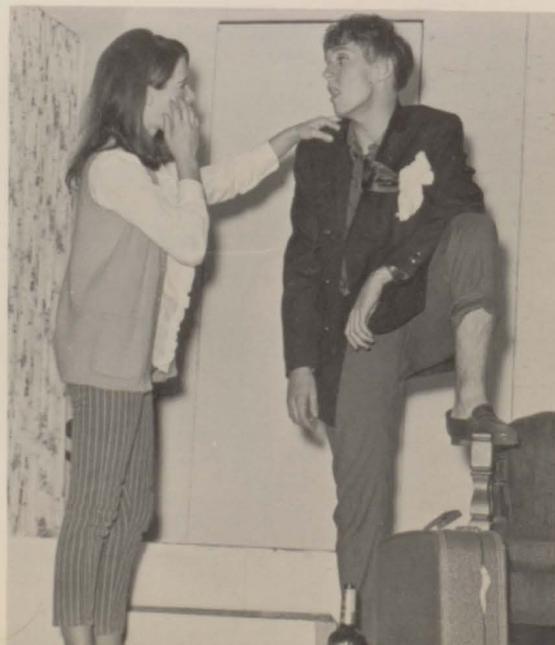

Paul (Steve Nelson) proposes a toast with his wife Corie (Debbi Nesbitt) and mother-in-law Mrs. Banks (Carol Brower).

Victor Valasco (Wendel Potter) and Corie "ham it up after having a bit too much to drink at a Hungarian restaurant. The outing completely exhausted Paul and Mrs. Banks.

Corie is shocked to find ultra-conservative Paul changed to a state of drunkenness and disorder, a state which was promoted by a lover's spat the previous evening.

Members of the jury were townspeople, faculty members, and students chosen from the audience.

Seniors Portray Courtroom Drama

The Senior Class Play "Night of January 16th" was presented by the Kaztors December 17. The courtroom drama was unique in many respects. The 20-member cast depicting attorneys, court workers, and witnesses, staged the production on the auditorium floor. Jury members were chosen from the audience seated on two sides of the performers. The jury decided the verdict which defendant Karen Andre should receive. The play was highlighted by a spirited duel between the defense and prosecuting attorneys, played by Ed Dubas and Steve Nelson. An ironic twist occurred when two different juries arrived at different verdicts. The matinee jury gave an innocent verdict; the evening jury issued a guilty ruling.

Diann Dubas Is Homecoming Queen

The crowning of Senior Diann Dubas highlighted 1969 Homecoming activities at Fullerton High on October 10. Diann was crowned during halftime activities of the F.H.S.-Shelton football game, a contest won by the Warriors 28-6.

Students spent Homecoming week decorating the hallways and preparing class floats, promoting the spirit that the Warriors needed for a victory. During the afternoon of game day, a parade was held through the downtown district, where the Homecoming Queen candidates and the floats were presented. After the crowning of Diann as Homecoming Queen, it was announced that the Junior Class had won the float competition and the Senior Class had won the hallway decorating contest. Following the important Lou-Platte Conference win over Shelton, a dance was held in the auditorium.

Barbara Stickney, 1968 Homecoming Queen, places the crown on a very surprised Queen, Miss Diann Dubas. Showing their approval are Linda Whitney, Ed Dubas, and Tim Roewert.

F-Club President George Palmer crowns Senior Jane Morgan as the 1970 Basketball Queen. Looking on are Escort Mark Hunzeker and candidate and escort, Janeene Davis and Tim Horacek.

Jane Morgan Crowned Cage Queen

Senior Jane Morgan was crowned the F.H.S. Basketball Queen for 1970 at the annual Basketball Dance held March 7. Jane was chosen from a field of senior candidates that included Janeene Davis, Sandi Nash, Patti Mann, Cyndy Wetovick, and Linda Whitney. The F-Club, sponsors of the event, presented Jane with the traditional crown and bouquet of roses.

The dance, which was well-attended, featured the music of "The Blue Lites." The event climaxed a successful cage season, in which the Warriors took District honors.

“Suicides” Highlight Sadie Hawkins

Moonshine jugs, clotheslines, outhouses, and cornstalks set the mood for the annual Sadie Hawkins Dance on November 26. The Student Council project was held in the school cafeteria utility room. Games such as apple-bobbing, orange-passing highlighted the evening along with dancing and mock weddings. Refreshments were served, featuring the "suicide" drink which was a combination of every imaginable soft drink. A costume contest was held during the latter part of the dance. Best costume awards were given to Linda Whitney, Pat Wagner, Rod Supencheck, and Bob Oakley. Judges for the contest were Mr. and Mrs. Kula, Mr. Camp, and Mr. Metcalf.

Beth Bard and gorgeous Bob (Roberta) Oakley seem to be the picture of delight as they sign their mock wedding license. Many couples decided it was time to "get hitched" during the festivities.

Student Council members Mark Gloor, Dee Wondercheck, Judy Robertson, and Glenda Schwensen, mix a large assortment of drinks together in the "ole kettle" to make the "suicide." The drink proved to be a success, as two kettles were consumed before the evening was through.

All sorts of weird costumes were apparent as couples danced.

Judy Robertson and Ed Dubas were crowned Sweetheart and Beau at the annual F.F.A.-F.H.A. Dance held February 14.

Judy, Ed, Are Sweetheart And Beau

A typical Valentine's Day setting was evident in the high school auditorium, as Judy Robertson and Ed Dubas were crowned Sweetheart and Beau of the F.F.A.-F.H.A. Dance. A large crowd turned out to view the festivities and dance to the music of Omaha's "Blue Lites" group. All decorations were the traditional red and white. In addition to Judy, other candidates were Janeene Davis, Kathy McCray, Sue Schweitz, and Lorraine Zaruba. Beau candidates in addition to Ed were Terry Imus, Ken Prososki, Paul Wozny, and Allan Zumbrunn. Mrs. Irene Kula, F.H.A. sponsor, and Mr. Harold Dissmeyer, F.F.A. advisor, were faculty sponsors of the affair.

Mr. Gary Camp proudly displays the Honorary "F" Award presented to him by F-Club President George Palmer. Mr. Camp was given the award in recognition of his support of Warrior athletics.

Mr. Gerber Is Athletic Speaker

A large crowd attended the Athletic Banquet held April 1 in the school auditorium. Featured speaker was Mr. Dick Gerber, a 1957 graduate of F.H.S. and a freshman football mentor at Hastings High. Mr. Gerber urged the athletes to try just as hard in academics as in athletics, stressing that the day of the "blockhead" in college sports was gone. The F-Club presented its annual Honorary "F" Award to Mr. Gary

Camp, F.H.S. English instructor, for his support of all school athletics. Coaches Barry Miller and Dean Petricek introduced the members of the athletic squads and thanked all townspeople in attendance for their support. Miss Minnie Hendrickson, Pep Club Sponsor, thanked all Pep Club members for their cooperation and work. The event was sponsored by the Fullerton Lions Club.

Some of the chief participating speakers for the Athletic Banquet were l. to r. Mr. Dick Gerber, keynote speaker; Mr. Dean Petricek, head basketball coach; and Mr. Harold

Seniors Tour Chicago Vicinity

Janeene Davis, Jane Morgan, and Tim Horacek view the strange sights of Chicago from the train upon arriving in the big city.

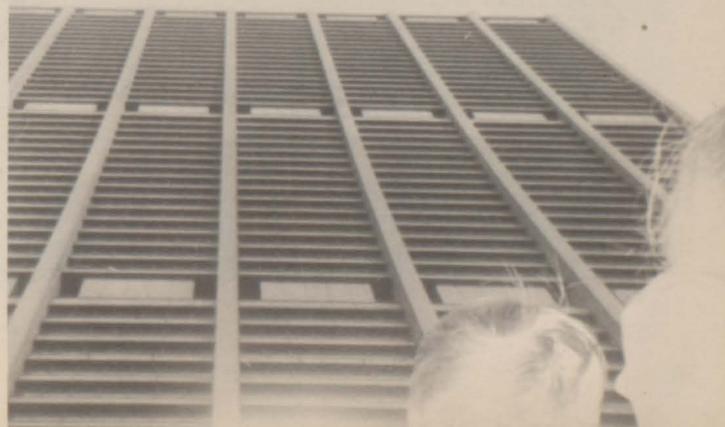

Sandi Nash and Ed Dubas pose in front of one of the gigantic vessels seen at the naval yard.

The Class of '70 took their long-awaited "sneak trip" to the Chicagoland area May 15-16. The trip featured a bus ride to Lincoln, a Burlington rail ride through Iowa and Illinois, a tour of the Chicago area, and a return trip to Fullerton. Major sights in Chicago visited by the group included the Great Lakes Naval Yard, Field Museum, Chinatown, a shopping center, and numerous downtown sights. Most of the Seniors were obviously tired upon their return to classes the following Monday. Faculty sponsors of the group were Mr. Leigh Metcalf, and Mr. and Mrs. Don Rabbe.

A group of seniors is shown above on the steps of the Field Museum. BELOW: The view of skyscrapers, such as this 80-story monster became a familiar sight to the Seniors as they toured downtown Chicago.

Beautiful decorating depicting a garden atmosphere highlighted the 1970 Junior-Senior Banquet and Prom which was appropriately themed "Golden Age of the Gods."

Juniors Choose Grecian Prom Theme

Beautiful decorating, depicting a Grecian atmosphere, highlighted the May 2 Junior-Senior Banquet and Prom entitled "Golden Age of the Gods." Juniors were busy the week prior to the event transposing the school gymnasium into the garden setting. Waiters and waitresses were attired in Grecian robe attire. Master of ceremonies was Junior Class President Bob Oakley, and featured faculty speakers were Mr. Richard Brengelman and Mr. Gary Yost. Entertainment was furnished by the waiters and waitresses, who furnished a classic dance routine. A dance followed in the gymnasium, with music by the "General Collection Agency," a rock group from Grand Island.

Banquet participants enjoy a delicious meal.

The highlight of the Honors Night Convocation was the tapping of these six seniors into the National Honor Society. They were l. to r. Tim Roewert, Diane Hebda, Bob Zaruba, Cyndy Wetovick, Mark Hunzeker, and Judy Robertson.

Six Tapped For Honor Society

The naming of six seniors to National Honor Society standing highlighted the Annual Honors Night held May 13. A large crowd was on hand for the event. Danforth Foundation awards went to Judy Robertson and Mark Hunzeker for outstanding leadership and scholarship. Mark was also awarded the Bausch and Lomb Award for outstanding achievement in science. Judy was presented the Senior Girls Citizenship award, and Tim Roewert was awarded the Boys Citizenship Award. Roewert was also named the American Legion Athlete of the Year.

Art class exhibits were presented for the first time this year during the Honors Night Convocation. BELOW: Junior Wendel Potter is presented with a short story writing award by his English instructor, Mr. Don Rabbe.

F.H.S. Life Has Variety In '70

F.H.S. life included such social highlights as dancing to the pulsating sounds of a rock group.

Life in the hallways might include some after-school "latest" sessions with your best friend, as demonstrated by Sophomores Bev Cunningham and Pam Wetovick, or F.H.S. life might include being "all wet" once in a while such as Senior Pat Wagner was (below right) at the Sadie Hawkins festivities.

Then there's always the pre-season bonfire where Senior gridmen such as Scott Sprague, Mark Hunzeker, Ed Dubas, and George Palmer await their chance to roast the Loup City "dummy."

Commencement Draws Huge Crowd

A huge crowd turned out for Commencement 1970 on May 25. Forty-eight members of the 1970 class were presented diplomas by Board of Education members Mr. Bob Palmer and Mr. Steve Dubas. Special music was presented by the Senior Girls Octette and Susan Schweitz. Awards and scholarships were presented by Superintendent Willard Hunzeker and Principal Max Irvin. After the recessional, a large group of well-wishers congratulated the Class of '70 in the reception line.

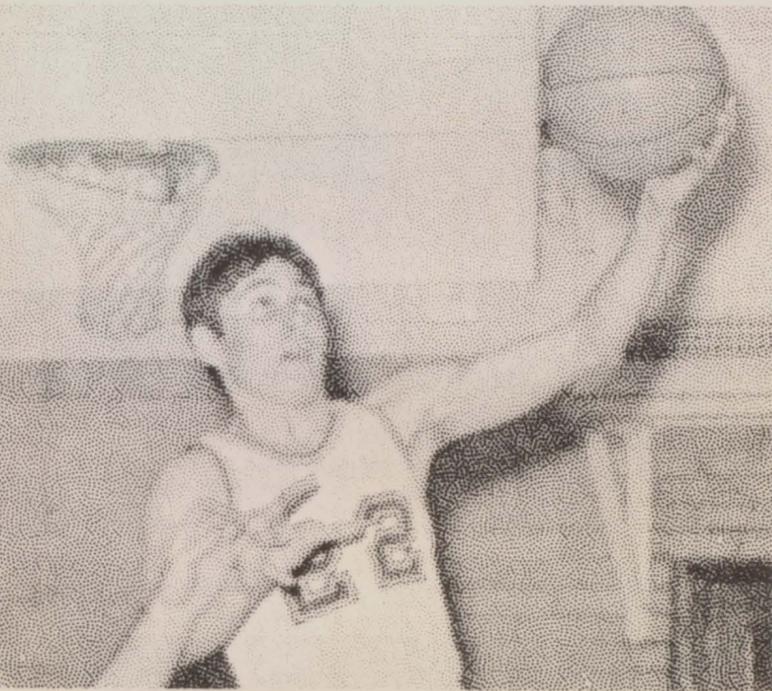

Seniors are congratulated in the long reception line. BELOW: Diane Shotkoske and Dave Umstead flash joyful grins as they march from the auditorium with diplomas in hand.

Gridmen Post 8-1 Season Mark

Warrior football fortunes blossomed in 1969. Coach Barry Miller's gridders posted a sparkling 8-1 record, F.H.S.'s best since 1949. The team's 6-1 Lou-Platte Conference mark was good enough for co-championship honors. Returning lettermen ironed out offensive wrinkles which plagued the '68 squad, as the team outscored opponents 280-54, shutting out three opponents and limiting three other foes to a single touchdown. The season's only disappointment occurred on September 18, when the Warriors lost at Ravenna, 16-0. It proved to be a costly defeat, as it kept F.H.S. from winning the L.P.C. crown outright.

Individual efforts were also apparent during the '69 season. Senior tailback Tim Roewert was credited with 1,211 offensive yards while scoring 98 points. His performance gained him All-State Honorable Mention in the "Omaha World-Herald." Captain Ed Dubas was the team defensive leader with 99 tackles. Senior center Terry Imus was credited with 73 tackles. Dubas won the weekly "Head-Hunter" defensive award four times, Imus won the award three times.

Cagers Win District Crown

The 1969-70 Warrior basketballers staged a tremendous finish, coming within one game of a State Tournament berth. After being counted out by many with a 6-11 won-lost record, the Warriors entered District play by upsetting seeded Genoa, 56-53. F.H.S. then downed two other favored entires, Cedar Rapids and Lindsay Holy Family, to gain the District Championship. It was Fullerton's first District title in five years. In regional action, the Warriors put up a gallant fight against a much taller Milford quint, but lost, finishing the season with a 9-12 record. Senior forward George Palmer led the '69-'70 squad with 350 points and 199 rebounds. Senior teammates Jerry Thomas and Tim Horacek gained runner-up honors in scoring and rebounding. Thomas scored 287 points and pulled down 161 rebounds; Horacek grabbed 181 rebounds and tallied 250 points.

Trackmen Are District Champs

F.H.S. capped a banner athletic year May 15 winning the District Track Meet at Grand Island. The team gave a strong account of itself all season scoring high in most of its meets. Top individuals were Tim Roewert, George Palmer, Jerry Thomas, Tim Horacek, and Terry Imus, all seniors. Roewert was the top point producer, getting 440 and 880 best times of :50.3 and 2:04. Horacek skinned the low hurdles in :20.8 and set a record high jump of 6'1". Palmer ran the high hurdles in Senior Jerry Thomas set the pace in the 880-yard run.

:15.5 and long-jumped 20'1/4". Thomas added a 2:08.8 880 clocking and Imus cleared 11 feet in the pole vault. The Warriors qualified five men in seven events for the State Track Meet at Kearney May 23, and scored 9 1/2 points in Class "C" competition. State scoring was by Roewert, fourth in the 440; Horacek, fourth in the high jump (tie); and the Mile Relay team of Rick Roewert, Thomas, Tim Roewert, and Palmer, first in 3:30.8.

Coaches Dean Petricek and Barry Miller shared track duties in 1970, steering the Warriors to the District crown. They are shown below watching an event.

Senior Tim Horacek is shown winning a flight of the 180-yard low hurdles. Horacek qualified for the State Meet with a second-place district clocking of :20.8.

Junior Doug Gilson hands the baton to Senior Terry Imus in two-mile relay action. Coach Petricek looks on in the background.

Junior strongman Bob Oakley was the top Warrior weight performer. Oakley's top 1970 shot put performance was 42 feet. Oakley also participated in the long jump, high jump, discus, 880-relay, and hurdles, to become F.H.S.'s all-around trackman.

Organizations

Council Sponsors Sadie Hawkins

1969-70 Student Council sponsored the annual Sadie Hawkins Dance held in November. The dance was set in hill country fashion and was highly successful. Council members also assisted Mr. Wolvin in October, serving as guides for Career Day and College Night, in which students visited with representatives from various colleges and businesses. In addition to caring for pop machine sales, the group also urged students to offer worthwhile suggestions for school improvement. Officers for the group were Judy Robertson, president; Tim Roewert, vice-president; Glenda Schwensen, secretary; and Linda Whitney, treasurer.

Typists . . . . .	Patti Mann, Linda Whitney, Kathy McCray
Advisor . . . . .	Mr. Gary Camp

The 1970 Warrior Staff set a high goal: to produce F.H.S.'s best-ever yearbook. New features such as an original silk screen cover, original division pages with photo-conversions, and larger, better-quality photos were planned into the 1970 publication. The staff worked on their "own time" meeting on available evenings throughout the year. Mr. Gary Camp served his second year as Warrior Staff Advisor.

Serving as Editors for the 1970 Warrior were l. to r. Seniors Diann Dubas, Sue Schweitz, and Cyndy Wetovick.

Pep Club Has Lots To Shout About

The Pep Club promoted spirited support for banner athletic squads during the 1969-70 school year. Pep Clubbers had a lot to shout about as the football team and basketball team both won their share of glory. The group managed to keep spirit at a maximum throughout the school year with much preparation going into pin-on and display signs, banners, and pep rallies. The Club also sponsored the Football Homecoming activities which included window decorating of downtown businesses, parade, and dance. Mrs. Eileen Yost was the group's faculty sponsor; she was assisted by Miss Minnie Hendrickson.

1969-70 Pep Club Officers included l. to r. Patti Mann, president; Kathy McCray, vice-president; Rosemary Lesiak, secretary; and Debbi Nesbitt, treasurer.

Cheerleading Squads Promote Spirit

The 1969-70 cheerleading squads promoted fine spirit throughout the year, organizing yells and rallies. Varsity leaders were chosen before the close of the 1968-69 school year. The reserve squad was chosen in September by a group of students and faculty.

1969-70 Reserve Cheerleaders included 1. to r. Julie Hunzeker, Kathy Stickney, Mary Smoyer, and Susan Knowles.

Two major events sponsored by the F-Club during the 1969-70 school year were the junior high basketball tournament in February and the Basketball Dance in March. The Club also sold Christmas cards as a fund-raising project. Throughout the school term, the F-Club upheld its tradition of awarding merits in athletics while maintaining standards of good sportsmanship.

F-Clubber Ed Dubas served as this year's Warrior basketball mascot.

F.H.A. Helps Hospital Fund

Several activities were sponsored by the Fullerton High F.H.A. chapter during the 1969-70 school year. First semester activities included Trick or Treat for UNICEF, Recipe Contests, and the Tasting Tea. Second semester activities included the Style Show, Daddy Date Night, and the Sweetheart-Beau Dance.

Major fund-raising projects were the preparation of the Athletic Banquet meal and an ice cream social, the latter held to raise money for the hospital building fund.

Mrs. Irene Kula completed her second year as faculty advisor. Chapter mothers included Mrs. Ted Prososki, Mrs. John Wondercheck, Mrs. Vernon Zumbrunn, Mrs. Clifford McCray, and Mrs. Fred Whitney.

A group of F.H.A. girls donned unusual attire to participate in Trick or Treat for UNICEF.

F.F.A. In Many Activities

The F.H.A.-F.F.A. Sweetheart and Beau Dance on February 14, and the Annual F.F.A. Banquet in April highlighted the Fullerton Chapter Future Farmers of America year. Other activities in which F.F.A. members were engaged were the annual "slave auction," country and state fair projects, leadership camp, and various livestock and land judging contests. In September, freshman voc. ag. students were initiated into the chapter, and became the traditional "green hands."

1969-70 "Green Hands" included M. Travers, J. Wondercheck, S. Crouse, J. Haynes, J. Williams, J. Cunningham, C. Dubas, A. Sims, J. Nelson.

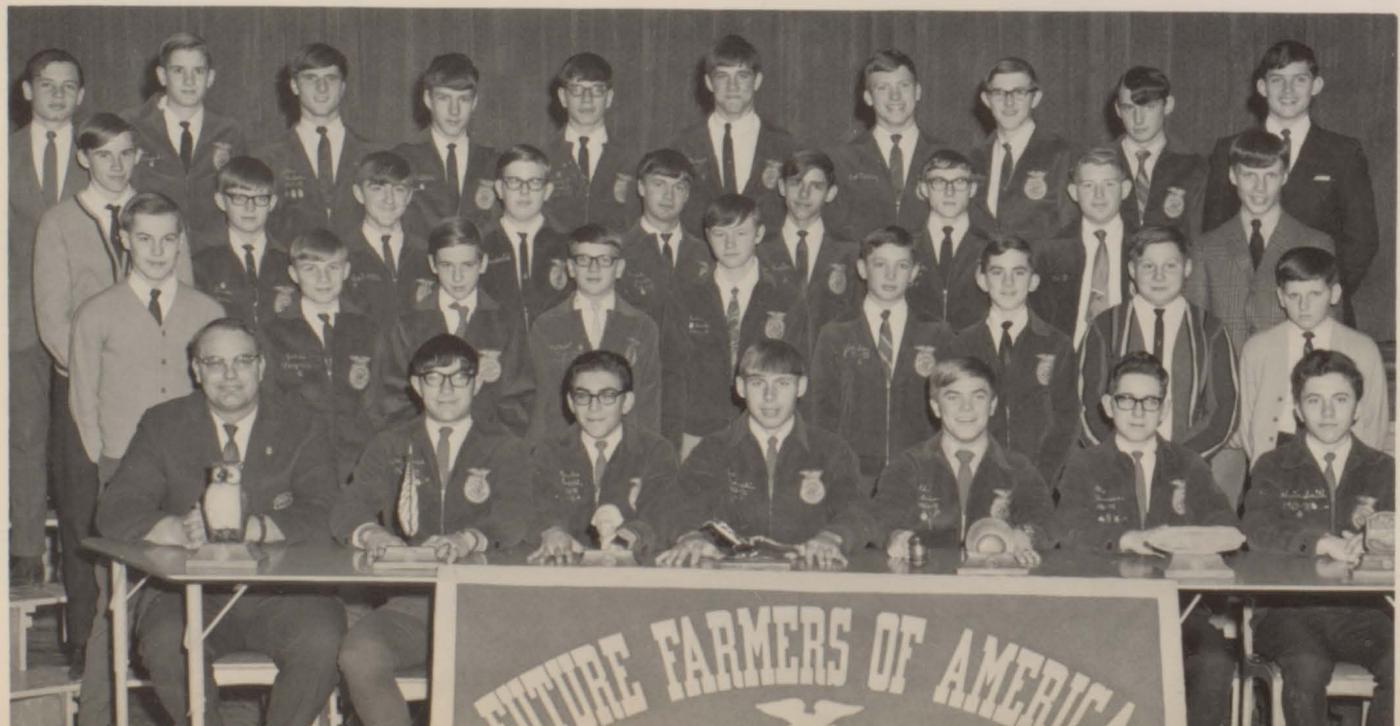

1969-70 F.F.A. members included Front Row: Mr. Harold Dissmeyer, advisor, T. Imus, D. Gabriel, K. Prososki, E. Dubas, A. Zumbrunn, C. Smith. Second Row: C. Dubas, J. Haynes, J. Williams, M. Travers, D. Sack, J. Dubas, E. Smith, E. Shively, J. Wondercheck. Third Row: T.

Four individuals were honored at the F.F.A. Parent and Son Banquet as Honorary Chapter Farmers. They were l. to r. Mr. Gary Camp, Mr. Ted Prokoski, Mr. Steve Dubas, and Mr. Vernon Zumbrunn.

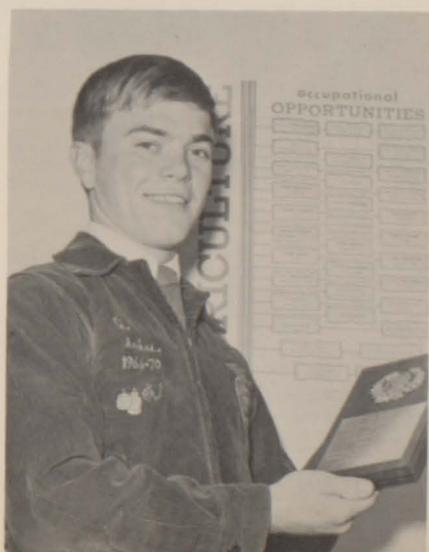

The sophomore agronomy team of Elwyn Smith, Tim Zona, and Jim Dubas took first place in the state judging competition at Lincoln April 9-10. This marked the fourth straight year that the F.H.S. chapter had taken the first prize.

The sophomore horticulture team of Eugene Shively, Darrell Frederick, and John Lesiak won first place in the 1970 state competition.

Senior Allan Zumbrunn was Fullerton's State Farmer for 1970.

Senior Ed Dubas was named the Star Chapter Farmer for 1970. Ed is shown below with a plaque awarded him for his outstanding efforts as a stockman and speaker.

Kaztors Continue Winning Ways

The Kaztors drama club continued their winning ways during the 1969-70 school year. In addition to presenting the junior and senior class plays, the group presented a contest one-act and sent ten individual speech contestants to the U. of N. Fine Arts Festival in Lincoln. The Kaztors reaped many awards in all contests they participated in which included the Loup City Invitational, Doane Invitational, Lou-Platte Conference, District, and Fine Arts. The club was sponsored by Mr. Don Rabbe, with Miss Connie Babcock assisting.

Junior Carol Brower was chosen as the best supporting actress for her role as Mrs. Banks in the Kaztor production of "Barefoot In The Park."

The Kaztors fared well in individual competition during the year, winning many superior ratings in speech events. Senior Judy Robertson was one of the few high school students in the state asked to perform at Fine Arts.

Steve Nelson and Debbie Nesbitt were recognized by the Kaztors as the top actor and actress of the year for their lead roles as Paul and Cory Bratter in the Junior Class production of "Barefoot In The Park." Steve was chosen as the top dramatist of the year by the group. Wendel Potter, shown below, was chosen the best supporting actor for his role as Victor Velasco in the same production.

Female Musicians Successful

The F.H.S. Girls Glee took top honors for the second year in a row at the Invitational Music Contest held in Fullerton, April 24-25. The group was the only Class B entry to gain the coveted Superior rating. Due to the large size of this year's group, practices were held in two sections, a freshman-sophomore section and a junior-senior section. Accompanists for the groups were Dorene Hebda and Beth Bard. In addition to contest competition, the Girls Glee performed at the Christmas concert in December.

Mixed vocal groups fared well during the 1969-70 school year. The mixed chorus gained an "excellent" rating in music contest competition. In addition, the group performed for the Christmas and Pre-Contest concerts. The highly-successful Madrigal gained a "superior" rating at contest in class "B" competition. The group also sang for numerous community organizations and gatherings throughout the year. Both groups were under the direction of Mr. Gary Yost. Serving as accompanists for the groups were Senior Beth Bard and Sophomore Mary Morgan.

Boys Glee Earns "Excellent" Mark

Male vocalists gave a good account of themselves during the school year. The Boys Glee, although being able to practice once weekly, earned an "excellent" rating at music contest. In addition to the contest performance, the group also sang at the Annual Christmas Concert. Individual male vocalists also did well. Senior Mark Hunzeker and Sophomore Mark Gloor earned "superior" ratings at contest for their solos. Junior Dale Dubas was rated "excellent" for his contest performance. Dubas was joined by Dave Larson, Doug Gilson, and Dave Fitzgerald in making up personnel for the Junior Boys Quartette, which also sang at the Christmas Concert.

F.H.S. Concert Band Wins Superior

Highlight of the F.H.S. Concert Band year was the Superior rating won at contest for sight reading. Fullerton was the only school at contest to receive such a rating. The band also won an excellent rating for performance under the direction of Mr. Gary Yost. The marching group kept busy during the football season, producing fine half time entertainment at home games. The marching band also attended the Shrine Bowl Parade in Lincoln in August and the Hastings College Melody Round-up in October. Serving as Drum Major for the marching group was Junior Sandy Kramer.

Classes

Many Changes Confront Freshmen

New faces, schedules, and classes were just a part of the many changes experienced by the 1969-70 freshmen. As usual, the frosh were also puzzled at the start of the school term, and they also experienced much "ribbing" from upper-classmen. There is no doubt that most freshmen can't wait for '71, when they will lose "baby" status and become sophomores. Freshman officers were as follows: Tom Nesbitt, president; Margaret Prososki, vice-president; Matt Travers, secretary; and Susan Knowles, treasurer.

Sophomores Eye Class Rings

Gladly leaving the title of "freshmen" behind them, the 1969-70 sophomores looked forward to the end of the school term when they would be able to order their class rings. For most sophomores, the year brought new experiences such as driving, dating, varsity athletic competition, and elective classes. Leading the class of "72" were the following officers: Mary Morgan, president; Barbara Bourn, vice-president; Dorene Hebda, secretary; and Pam Wetovick, treasurer.

Seniors View Life In New Decade

On May 25, 1970 48 F.H.S. Seniors received their diplomas and for all began a new life .... a new life which coincided with the dawning of a new decade, the seventies. The sixties had been taken up with a life of schooling; a life at home with parental protection and guidance. The life of the seventies proposes changes for each graduate. For some there will be higher education in colleges and technical schools, and with higher education a new career. For some, formal education will end and jobs will be taken; marriages will occur. Many young men in the class of '70 will no doubt serve their country in the armed forces. Regardless of whether formal education is continued or not, all graduates will face one of the greatest learning processes, the education of life itself, which includes living away from home and parents and making decisions without opinion from others. All graduates will no doubt look back to the beginning of this new life when another decade dawns, and always remember their year: 1970.

The Road of Life lies ahead for each member of the Class of 1970 now that graduation and Fullerton High are only memories. The Road is marked by contrast, as it holds both certainties and mysteries. It is certain that the Road will not always be smooth, and that obstacles will often confront the traveler who uses it. The mysteries deal with how long the Road will be, and of course what is directly in front of the unknown curves. The scenery along the Road will often be beautiful, so beautiful in fact that the traveler will yearn to stop and stay along the way. This is an impossibility of course because the traveler is not permitted to stop until he reaches his destination. The traveler will find some consolation in being able to glance backward on occasion. Here he will be able to see the distant vision of F.H.S., and will fondly remember the cherished moments that were contained there in 1970.
